

4448

Transporting Construction Equipment

Review Quiz

Transporting Construction Equipment

Review Quiz

Name _____ Date _____

1. All commercially manufactured equipment trailers have a rated load capacity.
  - a. True
  - b. False
2. Overloading can effect the trailer's:
  - a. Frame strength and life expectancy
  - b. Handling ability of both the truck and trailer
  - c. The braking distance normally required
  - d. All of the above
3. Federal DOT regulations require a daily inspection and written check sheet if the gross vehicle weight exceeds:
  - a. 10,000 pounds
  - b. 15,000 pounds
  - c. 25,000 pounds
  - d. 30,000 pounds
4. Trailer wheels should be blocked from movement in both directions before loading or unloading.
  - a. True
  - b. False
5. Ground Conditions which may effect safety are:
  - a. Recent rains
  - b. Thawing
  - c. Soft sand or soil
  - d. All of the above
6. Trailer deck conditions can seriously effect loading and transport safety.
  - a. True
  - b. False
7. Positioning the load on the trailer is not as important as clearing off the deck.
  - a. True
  - b. False
8. The person loading the machine on the trailer is the one responsible for doing it safely.
  - a. True
  - b. False

9. Loading a steel tracked machine in freezing conditions is no more dangerous than loading a rubber-tired machine under the same circumstances.
  - a. True
  - b. False

10. The most dangerous loading situation is:
  - a. Loading on a busy construction site
  - b. Loading when the deck and ramps are frozen over
  - c. Loading off a dock
  - d. Loading without a ground observer.

11. When loading without someone to guide you onto the trailer you should:
  - a. Hope for the best
  - b. Unhook your seat belt so you can jump clear if the machine tips over
  - c. Try to line the machine up with a deck board
  - d. Don't let the lack of visibility slow you down.

Answer Key:

1. True
2. D
3. A
4. True
5. D
6. True
7. False
8. True
9. False
10. B
11. C