

GHS Labels Refresher (Supervisor)

Quiz

GHS Labels Refresher (Supervisor) Answer Key

- 1) a. True
- 2) b. False
- 3) a. before using a chemical
- 4) c. Hazard Information section
- 5) a. True
- 6) d. all of the above
- 7) b. oxidizer

GHS Labels Refresher (Supervisor) Quiz

1. The Hazard Communication Standard (HazCom) helps workers understand how to find information on the hazards of chemicals they may encounter in their workplace.
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. Labels only include the name of the chemical and manufacturer.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. We should read labels on a chemical:
 - a. before using a chemical
 - b. after using a chemical
 - c. when supervisor requires
4. A description of the hazards of a label can be found in the:
 - a. Supplier information section
 - b. Product Identifier section
 - c. Hazard Information section
5. Pictograms are included on every GHS label.
 - a. True
 - b. False
6. Pictograms can alert us to hazards of a chemical such as:
 - a. Health hazards
 - b. Explosiveness
 - c. Flammability
 - d. All of the above
7. The pictogram with a flame over a circle indicates a chemical is:
 - a. a hazard to the environment
 - b. an oxidizer
 - c. flammable